I think the proposal may be sanctioned as there is still some considerable period to run Mr Ramaswami Iyer is an experienced man of parts and is likely to be a useful addition to the teaching establishment of the College He was a teacher before he got service in the Pt Deptt, and has in many ways kept up his knowledge & interest fresh notwithstanding various vicissitudes in Career

(1) The Inspector General of Education states that an extra teacher is necessary in the Maharani's College, Mysore, during the absence of Miss Park, Lady Superintendent, on furlough for six months with effect from about the middle of April last, and recommends that Mr B Ramaswami Iyer B A , may be appointed English tutor in the College with an allowance of R 100 per mensem

(2) Mr Rameswami Iyer was formerly in the State service as an Assistant Conservator in the Forest Department, and after retiring therefrom, was employed in some of the Native States in Central India His age is about 52, and he was once a teacher In these circumstances the Inspector General of Education recommends and the Councillors agree, that he might be employed as a teacher in the Maharani's College in the temporary vacancy caused by the absence of Miss Park on leave The Financial Secretary however objects to the appointment on the ground that the College is already much overmanned

Pars 3 & 4 Exco

Par 4 & 5 — —

(3) Mr Ramaswami Iyer was a servant of the State, and had to retire before he was superannuated and is possessed of qualifications for the post for which he is now recommended Both the Councillors support the recommendation which may be sanctioned
